Prelude

Prayer to Jesus

George Oldroyd (1886-1951)

*Jesu, since Thou me made and bought,
Be thou my love and all my thought,
And help that I may to Thee be brought,
Withouten Thee I may do nought.*

*Jesu, since Thou must do Thy will,
And naething is that Thee may let,
With Thy grace my heart fulfill,
My love and my liking in Thee is set.*

*Jesu at Thy will I pray that I might be,
All my heart fulfill, with perfect love to Thee.
That I have done ill Jesu forgive Thou me,
And suffer me never to spill, Jesu for pity.
Amen.*

Text: Richard Rolle (1300-1349)

Si iniquitates observáveris Dómine, Dómine quis sustinébit?

Quia apud te propitiátio est, Deus Israel.

Ps. De profúndis clamávi ad te Dómine: Dómine exáudi vocem meam.

V. Glória Patri et Fílio, et Spirítui Sáncto.

Sicut erat in principio, et nunc, et semper, et in saecula saeculorum. Amen.

O Lord, if you were to take into account our iniquities, who would withstand the test? But forgiveness abides with you, O God of Israel.

Ps. Out of the depths have I cried to you, O Lord; Lord, hear my voice.

V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Kyrie

Missa Tertia

Hans Leo Hassler (1564-1612)

Missa Simplex

St. Michael Hymnal #133

Music: Richard Proulx (1937-2010)

First Reading

Wis. 7: 7-11

I prayed, and prudence was given me; I pleaded, and the spirit of wisdom came to me. I preferred her to scepter and throne, and deemed riches nothing in comparison with her, nor did I liken any priceless gem to her; because all gold, in view of her, is a little sand, and before her, silver is to be accounted mire. Beyond health and comeliness I loved her, and I chose to have her rather than the light, because the splendor of her never yields to sleep. Yet all good things together came to me in her company, and countless riches at her hands.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps. 90: 12-17

Teach us to number our days aright, that we may gain wisdom of heart.

Return, O Lord! How long? Have pity on your servants! R.

Fill us at daybreak with your kindness, that we may shout for joy and gladness all our days. Make us glad, for the days when you afflicted us, for the years when we saw evil. R.

Let your work be seen by your servants and your glory by their children; and may the gracious care of the Lord our God be ours; prosper the work of our hands for us!

Prosper the work of our hands! R.

Music: Samuel F. Rowe (b. 1994)

Second Reading

Heb. 4: 12-13

Brothers and sisters: Indeed the word of God is living and effective, sharper than any two-edged sword, penetrating even between soul and spirit, joints and marrow, and able to discern reflections and thoughts of the heart. No creature is concealed from him, but everything is naked and exposed to the eyes of him to whom we must render an account.

Gospel Acclamation

Mt. 5: 3

V. Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Music: Samuel F. Rowe (b. 1994)

Gospel

Mk. 10: 17-30

As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up, knelt down before him, and asked him, "Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus answered him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: You shall not kill; you shall not commit adultery; you shall not steal; you shall not bear false witness; you shall not defraud; honor your father and your mother." He replied and said to him, "Teacher, all of these I have observed from my youth." Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said to him, "You are lacking in one thing. Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me." At that statement his face fell, and he went away sad, for he had many possessions. Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!" The disciples were amazed at his words. So Jesus again said to them in reply, "Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God." They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves, "Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said, "For human beings it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God." Peter began to say to him, "We have given up everything and followed you." Jesus said, "Amen, I say to you, there is no one who has given up house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or lands for my sake and for the sake of the gospel who will not receive a hundred times more now in this present age: houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with persecutions, and eternal life in the age to come."

Communion Antiphon

Ps. 118: 22, 24

*Aufer a me opprobrium et contemptum, quia mandata tua exquisivi, Dómine:
nam et testimónia tua meditatio mea est.*

*Remove from me all scorn and contempt, for I have kept your commandments;
for your law is the object of my meditations.*

Communion Motet

Ecce Quam Bonum: Prima Pars

Ludwig Senfl (c. 1490-1543)

Ecce quam bonum et quam jucundum, habitare fratres in unum!

Sicut unguentum in capite, quod descendit in barbam, barbam Aaron quod descendit in oram vestimenti ejus; sicut ros Hermon, qui descendit in montem Sion

Behold, how good and joyful a thing it is: brethren, to dwell together in unity!

*It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down unto the beard:
even unto Aaron's beard and went down to the skirts of his clothing. Like as the dew of Hermon: which fell upon the hill of Sion.*

St. Michael Prayer

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil;
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
