Introit

cf. Mt. 17: 5

In a resplendent cloud the Holy Spirit appeared. The Father's voice was heard: this is my beloved son, with whom I am well pleased. Listen to him.

Ps. 1. Blessed are those whose way is blameless, who walk in the law of the Lord.

2. Blessed those who keep his testimonies, who seek him with all their heart.

V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Music: Samuel F. Rowe (b. 1994)

First Reading

Dn. 7: 9-10, 13-14

As I watched: Thrones were set up and the Ancient One took his throne.

His clothing was bright as snow, and the hair on his head as white as wool; his throne was flames of fire, with wheels of burning fire. A surging stream of fire flowed out from where he sat; thousands upon thousands were ministering to him, and myriads upon myriads attended him. The court was convened and the books were opened. As the visions during the night continued, I saw: One like a Son of man coming, on the clouds of heaven; when he reached the Ancient One

Jesus took Peter, John, and James and went up a mountain to pray. While he was praying his face changed in appearance and his clothing became dazzling white.

And behold, two men were conversing with him, Moses and Elijah, who appeared in glory and spoke of his exodus that he was going to accomplish in Jerusalem. Peter and his companions had been overcome by sleep, but becoming fully awake, they saw his glory and the two men standing with him. As they were about to part from him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good that we are here; let us make three tents, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." But he did not know what he was saying. While he was still speaking, a cloud came and cast a shadow over them, and they became frightened when they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my chosen Son; listen to him." After the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone.

They fell silent and did not at that time tell anyone what they had seen.
