Intercessions

Celebrant: Christ the Lord is our head; we are his members. In joy let us call out to him:

R. Lord, may your kingdom come.

V. Christ our Savior, make your Church a more vivid symbol of the unity of all mankind, make it more effectively the sacrament of salvation for all peoples.

R. Lord, may your kingdom come.

V. Through your presence, guide the college of bishops in union with the Pope, give them the gifts of unity, love and peace.

R. Lord, may your kingdom come.

V. Bind all Christians more closely to yourself, their divine Head, lead them to proclaim your kingdom by the witness of their lives.

R. Lord, may your kingdom come.

V. Grant peace to the world, let every land flourish in justice and security.

R. Lord, may your kingdom come.

V. Grant to the dead the glory of resurrection, and give us a share in their happiness.

R. Lord, may your kingdom come.

Our Father

St. Michael Hymnal p. 83

Concluding Prayer

V. Father, guide us, as you guide creation according to your law of love. May we love one another and come to perfection in the eternal life prepared for us. Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.

R. Amen.

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord, my spirit rejoices in God my Savior for he has looked with favor on his lowly servant. From this day all generations will call me blessed: the Almighty has done great things for me, and holy is his Name. He has mercy on those who fear him in every generation. He has shown the strength of his arm, he has scattered the proud in their conceit. He has cast down the mighty from their thrones, and has lifted up the lowly. He has filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he has sent away empty. He has come to the help of his servant Israel for he has remembered his promise of mercy, the promise he made to our fathers, to Abraham and his children forever. Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.
